conduisant des aveugles; que, par leurs doctrines d'égalité absolue, ils ont introduit le chaos dans la société et l'ont organisée pour se conserver en chaos ;

Qu'en effet les plus grands rois-philosophes ont confessé hautement la perversité de l'espèce sophiste, en déclarant que s'ils voulaient châtier une de leurs provinces, ils la donneraient à gouverner à des philosophes;

Qu'ils ont imaginé, (les philosophes non les rois), que l'ordre ancien étant usé, ayant fait son temps, tout ordre quelconque était incompatible avec la liberté; qu'ayant été en demeure d'expérimenter leurs théories sociales, ils ont enseigné qu'il fallait briser tous les liens sous le prétexte qu'on avait brisé toutes les chaînes;

Attendu qu'ils en sont venus à reconnaître la folie de leurs doctrines et à renier tout leur passé révolutionnaire, témoin le philosophe-doctrinaire, Guizot, qui, se jetant imprudemment dans les extrêmes, soutient qu'il faut abrutir le peuple par un travail incessant, et se dispose à faire disparaître jusqu'aux derniers vestiges du droit d'association (2);

Qu'en vain ils s'imaginent pouvoir arrêter le mouvement progressif de la société; que la vraie sagesse politique consiste à réorganiser le corps social au moyen de combinaisons industrielles

"leading blind documents; that, through their trines, they introduced absolute equality, chaos into society and have organized themselves to maintain chaos;"

Indeed, the greatest philosopher-kings have openly confessed the depravity of the sophistic species, declaring that they wanted to govern one of their provinces with philosophers; that they had imagined (the philosopher-kings) an order that was ancient and used, having its time compatible with freedom; that having experimented with their social theories, they taught that it was necessary to break all the bonds under the pretext that they had broken all the chains.

"Expectedly, they came to acknowledge the madness of their doctrines and to renounce all their revolutionary past, as evidenced by the philosopher-doc-"

"trinary, Guizot, who, recklessly throwing himself into extremes, argues that it is necessary to dull the people through incessant work, and is ready to make the last vestiges of the right of association disappear;"

"They vainly think they can stop the progressive movement of society; that the true"

"wisdom consists of political reorganization of the social body through industrial combinations"

"in relation to new needs; thus"

Our perfectly financial lords

"understood a world of moral links in private, and subjected to political hierarchy, could only be temporarily re-"

"composed by the great power"

"if you have modern times, money, or better yet, capital;"

"That James Rothschild and associates therefore wisely took hold of the power that"

"makes all the powers bend, garlic-since"

"their significant symptoms attest that"

"their ulterior motive is to make it serve the greater good"

general of the peoples (3);

Considering the admission of the socialists themselves, it results that bankers have openly declared that...

"followed in their business data"

"the great sees the salvation of the publicists of modern societies in the rational development of financial institutions and the irregular confederation of large industrial, agricultural, commercial monopolies, etc., etc."

In effect, the methodical development of these will lead to a monopolistic and prodigious increase in the wealth of the upper classes, and in particular, our lords will be the ones to ensure that they are the first to do so.

to the minimum of food and maintenance proletarians, to the participation in profits their vast in companies, the proportion of labor and talent of each of them happy to stop; too at this price the invasion of pauperism and communist ideas, which lead straight to the abolition of capital and property; thus, it is easy to conceive that they will be satisfied with when they wealth and financial, and industrial glory will think of settling fairly the relations between masters and employees, and thus prevent these social revolutions which threaten the alarmist unfortunate; Whereas James Rothschild I has already implicitly done so by highlighting the formidable words promised by the great denouncer of industrial tyrants;

"Given that all men are brothers in Adam, and that the exhortation of the revolutionary apostle clearly addresses the victims of the oppressor among his brothers, of the one who receives no name but that of hell;"

That the Suzerain of industrial feudalism is too wise to pose as a predator and separate himself from his brothers in Adam, for he urges them to take as model the swallow and to disarm, sparrow, to pluck and hunt while gathering together.

tour de lui et le poursuivant ensemble;

Qu'il est trop absurde d'imaginer qu'un homme, si fort, si habile qu'il fût, pût afficher la prétention d'opprimer des millions d'hommes fraternellement unis, s'appuyant, s'abritant, s'éclairant mutuellement;

Que puisque la Royauté industrielle vise surtout à l'augmentation du produit net, il est d'une évidence niaise que son illustre représentant a tout intérêt à améliorer la masse de ses frères, voire même à l'engraisser, si vous voulez admettre cette supposition monstrueuse qu'il ne voit en eux qu'un troupeau de bétail humain;

Qu'en effet, nul n'a pu savoir mieux que lui, notamment par les expériences du système anglais, que mieux est entretenu le producteur, homme ou animal, plus la part du capitaliste, le produit net est copieux;

Attendu que s'il était assez aveugle pour penser autrement, il pousserait fatalement les amis du peuple à détourner les coups qui menacent incessamment la royauté officielle, et à diriger l'orage contre les puissants seigneurs de la féodalité nouvelle, qui seraient alors les véritables ennemis de la liberté;

Attendu que de pareilles absurdités ne supportent pas une minute d'examen;

Qu'il est donc déraisonnable, impolitique,

"Tour of him and the pursuer together; How absurd it is to imagine a man, however strong and skilled he might be, could display."

the claim of millions of people to be oppressed

"my fraternal shelter - united, supporting each other, enlightening one another;"

Since the industrial royalty aims mainly at increasing the net product, it is a naive obviousness that its illustrious re- presenting has every interest in improving the mass.

"from his brothers, or even to fatten him up, if"

"you want, this my-admit conjecture that he sees in them only a herd of"

human cattle

Indeed, no one could know better than him, particularly through the experiences of the system.

"English is maintained that the producer is better."

"man or animal, more the share of the capitalist,"

the net product is generous;

Given that if he were blind to think otherwise, he would inevitably lead the friends of the people to deflect the blows that threaten.

"incessantly the royalty and to official guidance,"

"wage war against the powerful lords"

"new feudalism, then the truths that would be enemies of freedom;"

Considering the absurdities that such things cannot withstand a minute of examination; that it is therefore unreasonable, impolitic,

"unconvenient to the querulous and pamphleteering others to quibble, demagogues, to tease, to ruffle whom Our Lords of finance are embracing the incapable's deep bosoms;"

> Given that it is more suitable, more beneficial for the serfs of the feudal lords to limit themselves to following the good news, watching over the counsel of Rothschild I; to unite, to support each other, to shelter under his fraternal protection; to work to enlighten their Masters.

three and Lords, with the ability to rise calmly like their brothers from across the Channel (5), and to claim promises, charters of gradual emancipation, a system of guarantees that put a brake on the bad temptations of invasion of industrial and social freedoms; that the Sovereign Rothschild I will know that the time has come, and will not fail to support the request of his brothers to the recalcitrant great vassals who would believe they could impose duties without having the power to impose rights, or exercise rights without duties; Considering that the royalty imposed laws on these official monarchies that claimed only to be accountable to God, or to their people's sword, there will be no power in the world that can resist this individual monarchy supported.

"masses of proletarians will have that she between-"

"price to release exclusively by"

> "Considering that, on the other hand, Rothschild would refuse to his industrial subjects any charters, since his feudal predecessors granted them to the villains and communes of every country; that there is a reason..."

the new feudalism, which, it is claimed, is forthcoming to the restoration rights of the lord féofrom the old regime, forcing women and girls to seek work for "their males in coal mines, factories, manufacturing plants, and other centers of industrial feudal exploitation; that the notoriety of these dirty intrigues significantly diminishes the growth of goodwill of the masses."

agricoles, industrielles, salles d'asiles, crèches, et autres institutions de bienfaisance, que l'Aristocratie du Coffre-fort se propose, dit-on, de fonder à profusion sur tous les points du pays afin de disposer les masses à accueillir sa domination;

Qu'il est sage de se prévaloir des enseignements de l'histoire, de ne pas perdre de vue que les pouvoirs sans contre-poids sont soumis à des chances périlleuses qui ne sauraient atteindre ceux qui admettent volontairement une sage pondération des forces sociales; que notamment, pour ne parler que de l'objet qui nous occupe, les flatteurs d'une royauté universelle précipitèrent sa ruine en proposant de lui attribuer sur toutes les femmes des droits qui font frémir la pudeur; que c'est évidemment à un autre titre que Rothschild I[er] entend être proclamé le père de la grande famille universelle, dont il revendique généreusement la fraternité, bien qu'il soit le plus illustre représentant du peuple élu de Dieu, ainsi qu'il est prouvé par la couleur dorée de sa chevelure, nuance caractéristique de la tribu royale de Juda;

En ce qui touche plus particulièrement les Français, considérant que la France est le premier peuple qui ait émancipé les Juifs de leur ilotisme séculaire et leur ait conféré les

"Wise weighting of non-social forces; which, however, does not concern the object we are discussing, the flatterers of a royal universe hastened his ruin by proposing to grant rights to all women that would shock decency; obviously, it is in another capacity that Rothschild I is proclaimed by the great family of Versailles, of which he generously claims brotherhood, although he is the most illustrious elected representative of the people of God, as evidenced by the golden color of his hair, a nuance characteristic of the royal tribe of Judah."

> "As for particularly the French, considering that France is the first people to have emancipated their Jews and conferred upon them their secular status and identity."

rights are to admit civilians; that it is impossible that any thought of treason or ingratitude could ever have taken root in the heart of His Royal Majesty Rothschild I; that, on the contrary, we see him, on all occasions, fervently soliciting the privilege of ruining...

in the sole interest of the public good (7); that,

"notably in a recent circumstance."

that the ministerial munificence wanted to grant him free of charge; that he had the generosity to lend to the State, at a nominal interest,

NOTES

CAUSERIES DE LA MINORITÉ.

Le Rapporteur général, tout en protestant de son profond respect pour la chose jugée, se croit tenu de faire connaître fidèlement les avis de la minorité, qu'il adopte pour la plupart. Il ne s'en est fallu que de peu de voix que les Juifs ne fussent mis en coupe réglée, les brillantes paroles de ces Rois de l'Epoque ne pouvant suffire pour atténuer leur passé : un Socrate, à leur place, n'aurait pas eu cette chance-là, je vous le jure. Voyez, pour vous édifier là-dessus, le livre de Toussenel, un brave et spirituel africain, qui a la loi punique ou juive en abomination. Il vous apprendra, cet homme de cœur, à ne pas céder à l'engouement de l'Opinion, un léger volatile qui, au lieu de se tenir à distance dans le calme de l'observation, s'abaisse insensiblement, continûment, et finit par se laisser absorber par l'être immonde qui l'a fasciné.

Note 1.

Les monopoles et empiétements de la féodalité nouvelle ont été prophétisés avec détails par Charles Fourier, il y a de cela plus de quarante ans. Et dire que les loups-cerviers d'Israël et d'Albion, qui affectent de ridiculiser les calculs scientifiques du Maître, ont assez d'esprit pour y voir ce qui convient à leurs égoïstes intérêts... rien de plus, rien de moins. JUNIUS.

Note 2.

Il nous est revenu que lord Guizot tient en portefeuille un petit bout de loi qu'il glissera furtivement entre deux budgets, et qui soumettra les sociétés en commandite à l'ordonnance royale, aussi bien que les sociétés anonymes. C'est donc pour dire qu'il n'y aura que les ouvriers bien pensants qui auront le droit de former des associations commerciales. Encore un moyen pour organiser la royauté juive, et lui livrer pieds et poings liés la grande masse des salariés. On aperçoit de reste que les gérants de ces sociétés formeront une nouvelle catégorie d'électeurs qui seront à la discrétion des ministres et autres vassaux de la Suzeraineté financière. Gare la Dénonciation, si lord Guizot fait passer cette loi liberticide, qui enlèvera aux masses toute

"With respect to the matter judged, he believes he is obliged to faithfully convey the opinions of the minority, which he mostly adopts. It was only by a few votes that the Jews were not subjected to regulation; the brilliant words of these Kings of the Era could not suffice to mitigate their past: a Socrates, in their place,"

"Would not have that chance, I swear to you. See, to confirm this for you, the book by Toussenel, a brave and witty African, who abhors the Punic or Jewish law. This man of heart will teach you not to yield to the allure of Opinion, a fleeting vapor that, instead of holding itself at a distance in the calm of observation, insensibly and continually lowers itself, and ends up allowing itself to be absorbed by the monstrous being that has fascinated it."

"The monopolies and encroachments of the new feudalism were prophesied in detail by Charles Fourier more than forty years ago. And to say that the wolf-cubs of Israel and Albion, who pretend to ridicule the scientific calculations of the Master, have enough intellect to see what suits their selfish interests... nothing more, nothing less. JUNIUS."

NOTE2.

It has come to our attention that Lord Guizot is holding onto a small piece of legislation that he will furtively slip between two budgets, which will subject limited partnerships to the royal ordinance, just like joint-stock companies. This means that only well-thinking workers will have the right to form commercial associations. Yet another means to organize the Jewish royalty and deliver the large mass of wage earners bound hand and foot. Moreover, it appears that the managers of these companies will form a new category of voters who will be at the discretion of the ministers and other vassals of financial suzerainty. Beware of the Denunciation if Lord Guizot manages to pass this liberty-restricting law, which will take away all rights from the masses.

C'est pourtant le pays qui a le premier émancipé ses Juifs, qui s'apprête à exploiter l'ignorance du peuple pour lui river les chaînes d'un ilotisme éternel! Et dire que des hommes qui lisent leur Bible s'avisent de faire une pareille faute, eux qui savent par l'histoire et la prophétie que les Juifs ne peuvent être qu'exploités ou persécuteurs.

« Amateur insensé de superstitions,
« Vaincu par ses voisins, rampant dans l'esclavage, le peuple élu, disais-je, qui a toujours été ingrat envers son Dieu comme envers son prochain, n'a eu rien de plus pressé que de se mettre à la tête des accapareurs de subsistances, qui faisaient trembler l'Empereur, et qui ont fait avorter cette fameuse campagne de Russie, en retardant l'expédition de six semaines ; inde les désastres de la France et la chute du bienfaiteur des Juifs.

"We know that our brothers, the English proletarians, have organized a universal strike, and that they refuse to work for the lords of capital. "Foolish amateur of superstitions, defeated by his neighbors, crawling in slavery, and the eternal contempt of other nations."

"the chosen people, I said, who have always been ungrateful towards their God as well as towards their neighbor, had nothing more urgent than to put themselves at the head of the food hoarders, who made the Emperor tremble, and who caused the famous campaign in Russia to be aborted by delaying the expedition by six weeks; hence the disasters of France and the downfall of the benefactor of the Jews."

Satan dernier va jusqu'à dire, dans Rothschild Ier, ses valets et son peuple, que la maison Rothschild était à la tête de ces infâmes vautours mercantiles qui ont déterminé l'accaparement, et par suite la chute de Napoléon,—à qui Dieu pardonne de n'avoir pas continué ses relations avec Charles Fourier. On ne voit que des traits pareils dans l'histoire des Juifs. Et puis étonnez-vous, après cela, que la persécution politique ou religieuse les laisse dans la fange du mépris, ne soit pas pour eux un germe d'ennoblissement, comme elle l'a toujours été, par exemple, pour les Grecs modernes, les Polonais et les chrétiens. NOTE10.

O Financial Sovereignty! You are ascending under tragic auspices, if you need to violate the laws at the expense of public safety in order to survive. After all, the King of the Jews could boast of being the most peaceful of conquerors, if he is satisfied with a few dozen corpses here and there to march toward universal domination. It is a modest beginning in the exercise of the monopoly on human life. What political or military royalty could say as much! Otherwise, one would not dare to think.

"That this man could have seen the disaster of the Northern railway as a means to make millions, for example, by hiding the horrible news to sell his shares at a high price, and then releasing it later to buy them back at a lower price. At the very least, he must have considered it inevitable since he forced the engineers to deliver the railway prematurely. What's more, there are special men who are at his orders."

"OF JUSTICE, assure that the royal commissioners, appointed by law to ensure public safety, do not even have the freedom to draw up a report on the poor condition of locomotives and rails when necessary. Thus, the catastrophe of yesterday will happen again tomorrow, the day after tomorrow, and periodically, which will be an inexhaustible source of profits for the Sovereigns of Speculation and desolation for families, as Salan rightly said last year. If the judicial inquiry comes to establish these odious facts, there will be nothing left but to hunt down the Jews and drag them before the assize court for the crime of speculative cruelty; or better yet, to prohibit rail traffic and compel the authorities to expropriate them by the State for reasons of public safety. — But the victims will know that Junius and his colleagues, these impartial Reporters of Opinion, will have their hundred eyes open to the strict enforcement of the law. — We fully expect that democratic and socialist newspapers, La Réforme, Le National, La Démocratie, L'Alliance, La Quotidienne, La Revue indépendante, La Phalange, La Revue sociale, Le Populaire, L'Atelier, La Fraternité, Le Bien Public, and many other courageous publications from France and abroad, will join their voices with ours to encourage the judiciary responsible for the investigation into the odious speculation that led to the catastrophe of Fampoux. If, by some impossibility, the non-sold press were to fail before its duty, we would have to lament the degradation of the Era, and we would cry out with the poet: Haec fierint, si testiculivena ullapalerniviveret in nobis!"

“We desire, for the honor of the Jewish monarchy, that it may wash away the accusation; we would nevertheless lament the mysterious fate that subordinates the development of this colossal fortune to the importance of our public misfortunes. French people must engrave in their hearts these three nefarious terms of Jewish power: 1815, — Waterloo, — Fampoux! — Ah — it is a great and a very great question to know if we remain, it must be said, — since I promised to be impartial, let us do our best, we pamphleteers, dramatists, satirists, feuilletonists, etc., by launching the flames of our holy anger against the malevolent individuals who periodically arise in the impure breath of our false civilization. I tend to believe that we, as we are, along with our illustrious predecessors, Timon the Elder, Phocion, Socrates, Félix Pyat, Toussenel, Karr, etc., would make faster progress in the work of reformation if we took more often to the evil, that is to say….”

"To the causes of evil, to bad principles, to false doctrines, to retrograde institutions that deteriorate and pervert individuals. To seek types of morality in civilized society is absolutely as if you were asking the Academy to look for traits of honesty among convicts, or traits of virtue in bad places; or as if you were asking the doctor to dedicate himself to public hygiene, or Mr. Attorney General to plans for moral reform in favor of criminals. CHARONDAS."

NOTE11.

"Read the Critique, claiming to be the journal of the high society; it teaches us that Rothschild I is more than a great man, which must mean that he will soon be placed in the position of God; from which it follows that the supreme father Enfantin will be maintained in the rank of vice-god, which he had only temporarily abdicated."

DEMOCRITE.

NOTE12.

It is easy to understand that the three to four billion annually taken from consumers and producers by the commercial value that the swallows and allied passerines of the Rothschild house pursue; these three to four billion annually will, in part, flow into the coffers of Rothschild I, simply by the effect of the intelligent organization of the Saint-Simonian monopoly.

NOTE13.

"Things happen exactly as in the time of feudalism. At the first indication of a bond issuance, the great vassals of finance are summoned; they confer with the counts and barons of the stock market, who, in turn, collaborate with the lords of speculation, including the simple knights of trading. All, covered from head to toe with the credit of the great vassals, they defeat, in a series of battles where the stockbrokers are the heralds, the unfortunate Gauls of the stock market, of whom, as new Franks, they have made the conquest... Feudalism exists today, not only in finance, which is the soul of everything, but it has penetrated everywhere; it has infused its hierarchical spirit even among the individuals who practice the same profession."

(Gratien of Semur, Errors and Prejudices.)

NOTE14.

"Come on, after such a prophecy, to say that governments could come to an understanding, even through an appeal to the people they have misled, to redeem, like that of Belgium, the universal monopoly on transportation, banking, insurance, etc. Try to make these extravagances believable to the gentlemen."

Talmudic rabbis, who see all the biblical prophecies fulfilled to the letter over the last three thousand years, and who know, with certain knowledge, that their political Messiah, the liberator of the kings of the Era and the oppressed nationalities, will emerge from the illustrious Rothschild House. Go, sublime spirits, return to the benches and meditate on this evangelical word: "The first shall be last, and the LAST shall be FIRST." — And finally, what do you want the powers to do who have benefited from the generosity of their suzerain, accepting either 10,000, or 15,000, or 30,000 shares of railways!!! J.

NOTE15.

"And do not go shouting slander! The King of the Jews is not so naïve, you know, as to stipulate in his contracts an annual interest of 80 percent; but he will interest influential figures in indirect usury schemes so ingenious, with such clever maneuvers, that in forty years, he will generate an interest of EIGHT HUNDRED MILLIONS (round numbers)."

"to the very minimum of 60 million that he lent to the State to set up the equipment for the Northern Railway. — It is to understand the multiplication of species a bit more skillfully than the testamentary executors of the wandering Jew. — If you doubt it, see the detailed proofs in Toussenel's book titled: The Jews, Kings of the Era, etc., and then tell me if there is not treachery, complicity in financial betrayal, in the act of those who dare to feudalize the product of the sweat of thirty."

It is true that he had promised to do so in the last issues of his journal, which regrettable circumstances forced him to suppress. Now that he has entered into the sharing of social influence, he will not lose sight of the fact that intellectual nobility imposes obligations, just like the other nobility, and that his former disciple, Junius the industrialist, to whom he revealed his satirical flair, would vigilantly monitor all retrograde movements in order to denounce them to the court of Opinion."

In the meantime, civilized literature also leaves them to wear themselves out correcting themes and doing some redecorating of displays, or something worse. — I will repeat it to you, Our Lords of the press, it is noble to do justice to the dead, but it is more noble to do justice to the living."

NOTE23

Rejoice, subjects of the great King of the Jews, weep with joy, English, Prussians, Austrians, for a great event has occurred in the world, though unnoticed. The autocrat of all Russias, the vigilant fly that had not yet shaken off the web of financial spiders, has finally made his appearance on the intricate fabric, under the pretext of making an incognito visit of friendship to Her Majesty Victoria, who is also interminably entangled in the network. — It is known that he has been bold enough to make overtures to second-tier banking companies, and that the great vassals of the finance suzerainty had the credit to reject Nicholas's proposals. — The fierce autocrat has...

"Received there a severe lesson; and as one only retreats to better jump when engaged in the industrial path, we will learn, on the first day, the submission of the Emperor of all the Russias who will come to pledge, in the hands of the King of Kings of the Era, his sixty million serfs and Russian, Polish, Wallachian, Caucasian, etc., etc., etc. It will then be that His Majesty Rothschild I will be proclaimed omnarch of the globe in Constantinople, under the pseudonym of Nicholas I."

P.S. At the time of going to press, we learn that H.M.I. is undertaking to rebel against Jewish sovereignty by issuing a very progressive ukase, I assure you, which condemns ninety-nine hundredths of the Israelites to embrace honorable and productive professions, such as agriculture, manufacturing, etc. Bravo! Nicolas; Charles Fourier could not have done better to moralize the chosen people; this will be a time of respite for usurious and trafficking feudalism. We wholeheartedly hope that H.M.I. can complete its great public works without having to endure the forked stakes of the contractors.

"Who lives will see."

NOTE24.

It is known that the Chambers voted, two years ago, funds for the improvement of the lower Seine. The Ministry of Public Works has not yet dared to authorize this expenditure for fear of harming the Rouen railway company, which is in competition with the river transport. — Eight days ago, the Versailles court condemned said company to pay 192,000 francs in damages to the Seine companies for violations of the tariffs imposed on it.

"Honor to the Judiciary, the last safeguard of the country's freedoms!"
